Day 3

9:00 – 10:30 The Public Narrative
 Fellows see how their own values, choices, and personal journey connects with the work that they do (self).

Wale Ajiboye, Lead Facilitator

Fellows learn how to translate values into the motivation for action by learning how to tell a story of why they were called to lead, a story of their people, and a story of an urgent challenge that requires action (self, us, now).

10:30 – 11:00 Tea Break

11:00 – 12:30 The Public Narrative (cont.)
 Fellows start to see their own life as a repository of stories and learning moments, moving away from a single story and building the agility to tell stories according to the audience and the ask they want to make (self, us, now).

Wale Ajiboye, Lead Facilitator

Fellows develop the ability to recognise and call upon shared values of a group, to develop 'us-ness', in service of mobilizing that group (starting with their own cohort) (us).
